7 Union Territories

Population 1.2 billion

- The world has 1.8 billion youth
- According to World's Population report 2015 by UNFPA says India has the largest youth population in the World with 356 million and China is second with 269 million.
- India has the privilege and fortune of being the mother and matrix of many religious traditions. Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism and Sikhism are born and have grown in India.
- Thus, India in its entire history never was a country with a single religion. In its continuous search for the Absolute, India has not only given birth to several major religions but also accommodated number of world religions. It has been aptly called the cradle of religions. Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam, the world is one family.

Peace Channel believes there is only one community and it consists of all people. They have only one origin, since God made the whole human race inhabit the entire earth. They have only one ultimate destiny, God. Everyone is created in his image and we all belong to Him. (labels)

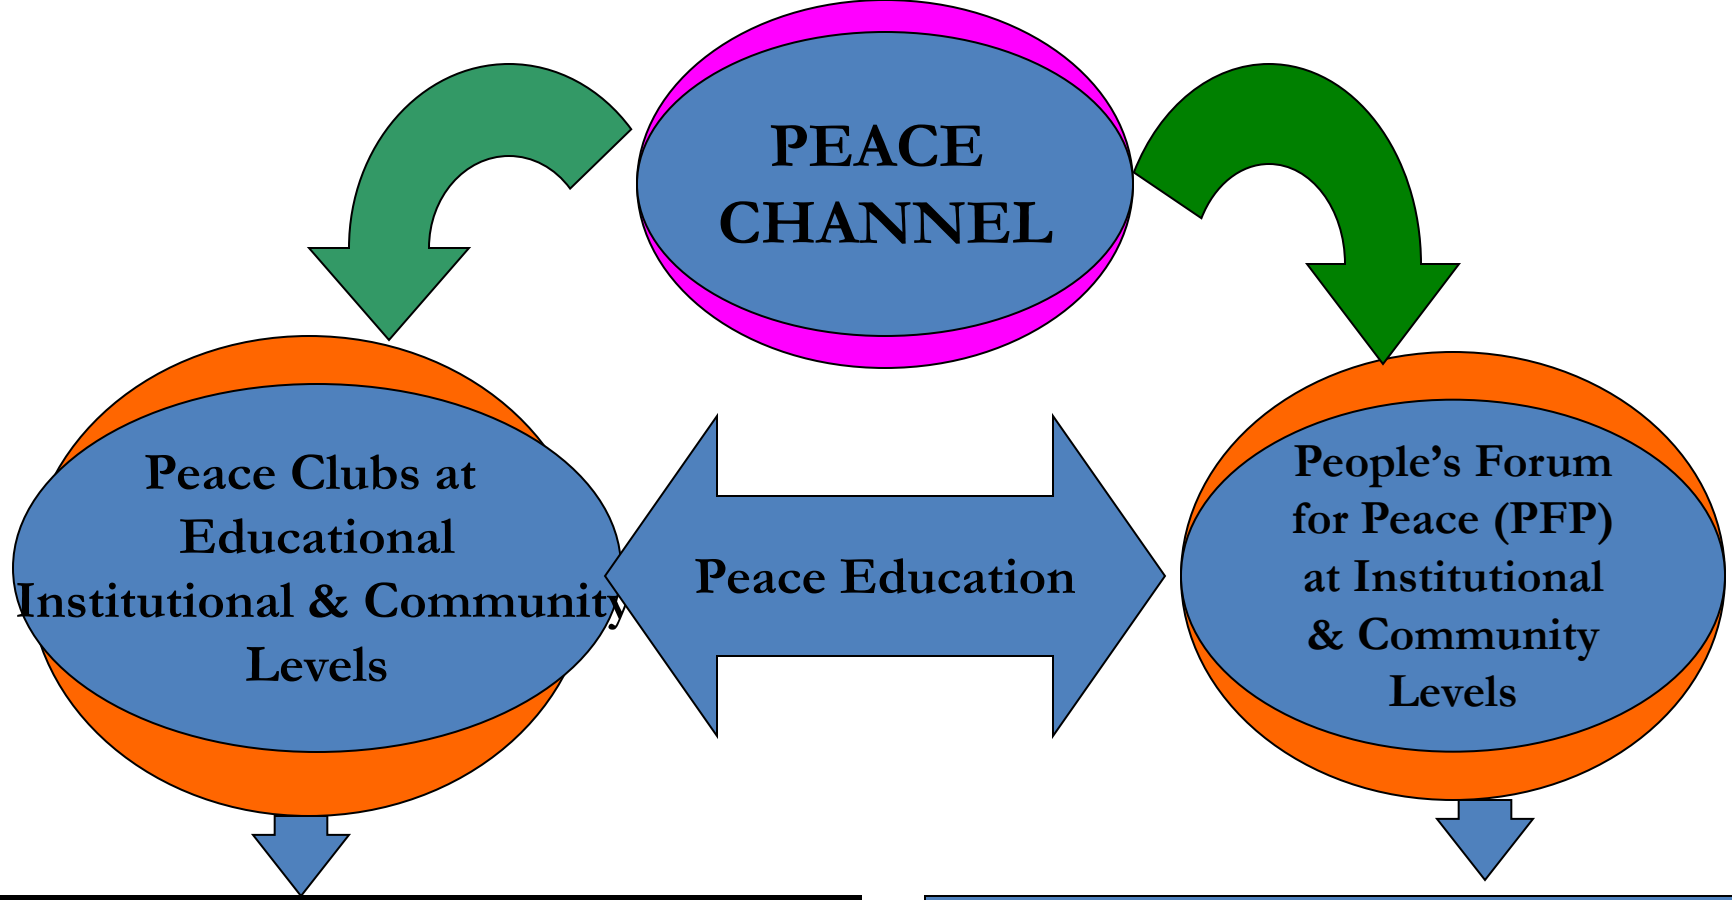

Peace Channel aims at transforming a culture of violence in to a culture of peace and goes beyond the boundaries of tribe, religion, caste, culture, language and color to form MORUNG the PEACE CLUBS.

A Two level approach Peace Channel

As we all know that there are three main domains of learning – Cognitive (Thinking), Affective (emotion/ feelings) and psychomotor Physical or Kinesthetic).

Peace Education Emphasis on the second domain Affective to change the behaviour.

1. Institutional (over 150)
2. Educational (Skilling)

Peace Celebration : Every Week the club come together for the celebration (Seven Steps Method)
Institutional Level Socially productive activities & Competitive programmes.
Mutual help-the members of the clubs pledge to help one another and others in the institution and immediate neighbourhood.

Peace Skill Development: Peace & Human Rights Education Seminars, Capacity building and Development Programmes indigenously organized for the benefit of the members and collective groups.

How does Peace Channel Model Works for the promotion of youth development and sustainable peace?

The working model consists of our experience in peace building for last eight years and the result of number of seminars and workshops, sharing of experiences of peace building practitioners and networking with national and international institutions, organisations and communities we have developed the following workable systems.

1. Formation of Quality Peace Clubs in the Education Institutions and Communities and capacitating the leaders and teachers as change-agents in promoting peace building, reconciliation, dialogue and non-violent conflict resolution among its members.
2. Capacity building on different peace related topics and experiential sharing of its members encourages to promote and sustain the peace building process.
3. Encouraging, advocating and even lobbying the government and nongovernment entities in promoting peace education, nonviolent communications and establishing peace commissions in departments.

4. Promoting activities like Peace rally, peace campaign, peace celebrations in the quality Peace clubs, cultural exchange programmes among different communities and religions etc.,
5. Publication of peace materials, manuals, success stories, website information sharing, face book and twitter etc to strengthen the networking both local and global perspectives.
6. Organize researches on various peace related issues and publish them annually. It also shared with the general public and the policy makers.
7. Organising national, regional and local level seminars, conferences and workshops to learn and exchange ideas on peace related issues.
8. By promoting annual Peace Channel Award for the well known peace activists and youth peace and cultural festival.
9. Formation of Peace Channel Band. The members of the band consist of artists from different religions, communities and walks of life.
10. Inter-religious and ecumenical meetings to actively promote religious harmony and also to prevent future conflicts.
11. Environmental awareness programmes and plantation of trees to protect the mother earth.
12. Establishments of educational institutions like Peace Music, Peace Museum and North East Institute of Social Sciences and Research (Master of Social Work College) to educate and capacitate peace activists on peace and conflict transformations studies,

Further, the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights, established in 1987, is a permanent judicial body for the African continent. It is the successor to the African Commission on Human Rights, which was established in 1968. The Commission is composed of 11 members, who are elected by the African Union Assembly of Heads of State and Government. The Commission's mandate is to promote and protect human rights on the African continent. It has the authority to receive and investigate complaints from individuals and states, and to issue recommendations and judgments. The Commission's work is guided by the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights, which is the primary human rights instrument for the African continent.
